REACHING STUDENTS, MAKING DISCIPLES

July 5, 2016

God is Answering Our Prayers!

The last few months have been full of teams and volunteers helping us build relationships with students and people in the community. Through these blossoming friendships, we have been able to share about Jesus, and some students asked for Bibles—which we gladly provided! We’re meeting every week to talk about God’s story, and throughout the week we spend time together playing games and talking about life using English and Thai language.

We also started teaching English to employees of a local coffee shop and roasting company, and we are getting to know them well also. God is at work answering our prayers, yours and mine, to draw people in Lampang to Jesus!

Above: Brittany, Daniel, and Troy are serving here for the summer. Our friend Fai is behind Brittany.
Below: Picnic in the park included worship songs!

Right and below: Day trip on a lake. We go on outings and also sit in coffee shops to hang out together.

Right: Visiting the coffee roaster where we have English classes a few times a week. We love seeing the staff at the coffee shop too.

Praise and Prayer

PRAISE GOD FOR: summer teams and volunteers helping us build relationships in Lampang; students interested in learning about God; new opportunities for ministry.

PLEASE PRAY FOR: students and all our friends to know Jesus; wisdom in continuing relationships after teams leave; discipling pre-believers and sharing Jesus’ story.

Spare Sixty

Will you please spend the next sixty seconds praying for this specific need in Thailand? Most Thai people face pressure from their families to be Buddhists and not change from the ways of their ancestors. Pray that people would feel free to seek God and His truth, and families would not dissuade them from following Jesus.
