REACHING STUDENTS, MAKING DISCIPLES

DREAM TEAM

November 3,
2016

This October, FIFTY youth from across Thailand gathered for a special camp — Dream Team! These young people feel called to some sort of ministry, and over three days were challenged and encouraged to be on Jesus' Dream Team, making disciples and growing His Church. These happy faces show the future of the Thailand Assemblies of God!

I taught a mini-session on the importance of spending time in God's Word, to train our ears to know His voice. Fun!

SPARE SIXTY... PLUS

Will you please spend the next sixty seconds (or more!) praying for this specific need in Thailand?

Thailand's beloved King, Bhumibol Adulyadej, passed away on October 13th. He reigned for 70 years and was deeply loved by Thai people. The nation is in mourning. Please pray for Thai people to be comforted with the comfort of Jesus, and trust in His peace as the nation moves forward.

I'm happy to say the Take5 Thailand blog is back! Check it out at take5thailand.org where you can sign up for occasional updates, prayer points, and get a free guide, 7 Days of Prayer for Thailand.

PRAISE AND PRAYER

PRAISE GOD FOR: an amazing Dream Team camp, and the fruit God will bear in the students' lives; successful paperwork for my visa and work permit — I'm in for another year!; continued friendships with students.

PLEASE PRAY FOR: Thailand, the government, peace; students in Lampang who are hearing God's stories almost every week—for open and receptive hearts, and for me to tell stories clearly and answer questions.
