REACHING STUDENTS, MAKING DISCIPLES

November 3, 2017

I hope to see you soon!

After four years in Thailand, it's time for me to itinerate—a fancy word that means traveling to churches and visiting supporters to say THANKS and share how God is working in Thailand. That means... I hope to see you soon! I am planning to be in California from January to mid-April (home for Christmas first, yay). Good news: I've been able to schedule some meetings. Good and bad news: my calendar is filling up already! Please let me know how I can serve your church or small group while I'm in California. You can email me or leave a message on my phone. (Info at the bottom.) I can't wait to thank you in person for your prayer and support!

SPARE SIXTY

Will you please spend the next sixty seconds praying for this specific need in Thailand?

In October 2016, Thailand's King Rama the 9th passed away after 70 years on the throne. He was greatly loved by the Thai people. This October, final funeral ceremonies were held across the country, corresponding with the main ceremony in Bangkok. In Lampang, the ceremony was held at the university, and everything was decorated with marigolds, what I've heard was the king's favorite flower. Please pray for peace and a smooth transition forward for Thailand. (Top left:

Happy Thanksgiving & Merry Christmas!

PRAYER AND PRAISE

PRAISE GOD FOR: health and protection; the privilege to join in the final ceremony of King Rama 9; getting in touch with many people about itineration; a great team in Lampang to keep ministry and relationships going even while I'm away. PLEASE PRAY FOR: final preparations for itineration; friendships to continue while I'm gone and pick up again when I return; wisdom and direction as I minister in America; tolerance for cold weather (I'm not joking, I need prayer! This body is used to the Thai tropics! ☺); safety as I travel for itineration.
