SUMMER SEASON

Three summer volunteers from San Antonio, TX and one from Fresno, CA here for seven weeks — hot pot dinner with a friend!

The XA (Chi Alpha university ministry) team from Fairbanks, Alaska came for twelve days in June — goodbye at the airport with Thai friends.

Campus lunches, time with friends, and a Fourth of July party with the Alaska team — (left to right) invitation, party, and more party! And we had lots of time for prayer together, for our Thai friends, Buddhists, and the never-reached.

The team from XA in San Antonio arrived on Sunday and are already making friends on campus and at the park, and planning for a fun fiesta this Friday. I'm grateful for a full summer season and the enthusiasm our teams and volunteers have for missions and making friends here in Lampang.

For the foodies:

PRAYER AND PRAISE PRAISE GOD FOR: teams and volunteers who are choosing to spend time this summer with us in Lampang; Thai friends that want to hang out; getting to know new students.

PLEASE PRAY FOR: continued friendships on campus and in town; health for all, and safety as we travel in the van; the XA team from WA raising funds to come the last weeks of August.

SPARE SIXTY Will you please spend the next sixty seconds praying for this specific need in Thailand? Pray God will call people from around the world to serve full-time in Thailand. Hosting teams and volunteers reminds me of the benefits of a larger team and also the need for long-term workers.
