MISSIONARY TO THAILAND

Staying Connected

In September I joined a gathering of national youth directors and missionaries working with youth and university students from across Asia Pacific (pic to the right). We meet every year to network, exchange ideas, and encourage one another. This year our meeting was in Indonesia. After the meeting, I was able to visit an English outreach center that has been using the curriculum my team and I developed in Chiang Mai. One of the workers serving in Indonesia took me for a prayer walk on the Islamic University campus (pics below). Pray for students across Asia Pacific to come to know Jesus!

Merry Christmas!

Coming up:

- This month I'm going to test run a short English class on the weekends to see if students are interested (and interested enough to keep showing up). Please pray with me that it will be a good way to stay consistently connected with students and have deeper conversations.
- Next month, I'm going home for Christmas!

Meanwhile, back in Thailand... God has given me opportunities to connect with old and new friends and share life with them.

- I'm meeting with a small business owner every week to read the Bible and answer her questions about Christianity.

- I visited a former student and her baby! (right)

- I visited a student friend and his family's coffee shop (left). Pray this family will take the bold step to follow Jesus rather than Buddhism.

- We had a small party to say goodbye to students who are starting a four-month internship next week (right). A few will stay in town and I can see them often.

Prayer and Praise

PRAISE GOD FOR: all He is doing

across Asia Pacific to reach youth and university students; my business owner friend who wants to learn about Christianity; continued friendships over these ten years. PLEASE PRAY FOR: opportunities to share about Jesus and pray with people; English class friendships to grow; safe travel here and to the US.

Spare Sixty

Will you please spend the next sixty seconds praying for this specific need in Thailand?

Pray for Thai pastors. Most churches are small and cannot support a large staff. Pray pastors will be encouraged, grow closer to the Lord, persevere in difficulty, and see much lasting fruit.
