GOLF. TACOS. JESUS.

When I directed the English Center at TLC Church in Chiang Mai, we had a student named Golf. After studying for awhile and getting to know us, he became interested in God and decided to become a Christian. He became a talented chef and opened a Mexican restaurant, and just recently opened another restaurant that serves tacos, fries, and drinks. What an encouragement to see Golf following Jesus, and how God is blessing Golf's work.

I was able to go up to the restaurant for the grand opening party with church members. If any of you visit Chiang Mai, tacos are on me!

Meanwhile, back in Lampang... we are meeting in person again for church, and our neighbor Aunt Jat has been coming! The university started online and campus is still pretty quiet. Stores and restaurants are open and I've been able to spend time with my friends Ing and View.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Last month my Grandma Joanne passed away. She was 93 years old. Grandma was always a loving and faithful supporter to me, through childhood and in my life as a missionary. I am grateful for her legacy of generosity, consistency, creativity, and patience.

PRAYER AND PRAISE PRAISE GOD FOR: health; opportunities to talk with local friends about faith; God's work in Golf's life; Aunt Jat coming to church. PLEASE PRAY FOR: continued health and protection; wisdom for sharing with Aunt Jat; opportunities for more spiritual conversations. // I am praying for you, for our nation, and for so many of your loved ones affected by COVID.

SPARE SIXTY Will you please spend the next sixty seconds praying for this specific need in Thailand? This week is the beginning of Buddhist lent, and many Thai people have gone into the temples to be monks and nuns. Pray they will have a revelation of JESUS in their meditation!

("Lauren, you put tacos and your grandma in the same newsletter?!" YES. For my Grandma Joanne, tacos were a good idea anytime, anywhere! 🌮🌮🌮)
