MISSIONARY TO THAILAND

November 6, 2020

Still Praying..

I'm still praying for you, your churches, our nation, our world! God is not surprised by anything that has happened in 2020, though we all have been, and many times over. He continues to be faithful, and we can continue to trust Him. May the LORD reveal Himself to you in new ways this holiday season and remind you continually that He is Immanuel, always with you.

Last month I drove to the Thailand Assemblies of God General Council meeting south of Bangkok. It was a great time to connect with Thai pastors from around the country, and other missionaries too. I took the opportunity for a meandering prayer adventure on the way home. Please pray with me:

- for several college and university campuses, opportunities for ministry
- that the Lord will send workers to plant churches and grow His kingdom
- for Buddhists and Muslims in these provinces to have dreams and visions of Jesus, and meet believers who will share the gospel with them

Phetchabun: a large Buddha image across the street from the university. Phitsanulok: a Buddhist structure at the largest university campus in town.

Pichit: two vocational colleges in the city.

Uttaradit again! And Lampang, on a city prayer walk.

Stats for prayer

Phetchabun: the capital city is 0.67% Christian; the entire province is 1.17% Christian
Phitsanulok: capital is 0.72% Christian; province 0.63%
Phichit: capital 0.21%; province 0.62%
Uttaradit: capital 0.89%; province 0.55%
Lampang: city 0.99%, but only 0.33-0.43% in neighboring communities; province 0.82%

Prayer and Praise

PRAISE GOD FOR: my miraculous visa renewal in September; a colleague who recently entered Thailand on a new visa; encouraging meetings and prayer trip in October; new connections at another university in Lampang. PLEASE PRAY FOR: wisdom for Christmas outreach efforts and open hearts to hear; continued spiritual conversations with friends; safe travel; health.

Spare Sixty

Or spare 120... please take just a moment to look up news in Thailand (particularly events in the capital) and pray about those things. That's all I can say here. Jesus is the One who offers true peace! Thanks for praying!
