MISSIONARY TO THAILAND

Why Phichit? Why Not?

September 5, 2022

Summer flew by and a month ago we sent off our volunteers from Evangel University. We were grateful for their part in meeting people in Lampang and praying for our city and for Thailand. We traveled through several provinces and spent time praying for those less-reached cities. Phichit is a small province with a small capital city in central Thailand. I have wanted to travel there to pray, and I was so excited to take the summer volunteers. Even though it doesn't seem like much of a place to visit, we heard God reminding us that He sees every person, and knows the work He is doing and will do there. A prayer trip is always worth it!

Praise and Prayer

PRAISE GOD FOR: a full and fulfilling summer season; safe travel and meaningful prayer trip; opportunity to talk with so many people at the weekend market and to make consistent friends there; answered prayer and spiritual conversations. PLEASE PRAY FOR: closer friendships at the market and ways to connect with people throughout the week; open hearts to desire to know Jesus.

We are still doing "Free English" at the weekend evening market, and have gotten to know many people there. God is opening doors for spiritual conversations, in answer to our prayer. Please pray with us for everyone we get to talk to, and for ways to share about Jesus.

Spare Sixty Would you please take one minute to pray for this need in the Buddhist world? Please pray for laborers as Jesus encouraged us (Matt 9:37-38). Pray for local believers and cross-cultural workers to be called and sent out for ministry in never-reached places. Pray for perseverance and harvest!

A Reminder:

If you have (or your church has) given monthly with your credit card, and your credit card expired, your giving has stopped. You'll have to set up a new monthly gift at giving.ag.org. Thank you for your faithful support! (Stuck? Try <https://giving.ag.org/home/help> or ask me!)
