Goodbye, Hello, Repeat

We threw a cookie-decorating birthday party for my teammate Jenelle (left top, bottom) with young and not-so-young friends enjoying a final farewell event with her. Last month's goodbyes also included a "goodbye for now" as friends in Thailand went to the States for itineration (lower center). This month, Eryn is joining ministry and experiencing life in Lampang for a few weeks... which included a visit to the elephants (lower right).

The most exciting parts of my life cannot be captured in a photo—sharing Bible stories with a friend who is starting a relationship with Jesus, taking walks with a friend who is asking questions and wanting to learn more about the Bible, praying for friends at their restaurant or market stall, and reading books to kids at our English table.

May the LORD help each of us trust Him and do the good He calls us to do, dwelling faithfully in the place He calls us to (Psalm 37:3).

Spare Sixty Would you please take one minute to pray for this need in the Buddhist world? Please pray for new believers and people on their way toward following Jesus from a Buddhist background. Pray their families will not only respect their faith but choose to follow Him as well. Pray against family pressures to remain Buddhist.

Praise & Prayer PRAISE GOD FOR: Jenelle's safe return to the US and all our friends in the city who were impacted by her life here; friends who are learning about God; Eryn's time in Lampang. PLEASE PRAY FOR: health, wisdom to steward new friendships and answer people's questions; teammates; entire families to follow Jesus!
