MISSIONARY TO THAILAND

Here and There

The last few months have included a variety of traveling and hosting. My friend and I took a prayer trip to a new (to me) city a few hours down the highway. Tak is not very big and has a friendly, local feel. There are just a few churches in the area. Lord, please send Your laborers to this city!

The history museum in Tak, in a famous wooden house ⇨

My friends and Thailand missionary leaders Dan and Deanna Klepel came for a weekend visit and we had so much fun together! They joined our Friday evening church gathering and the weekend market table. I was encouraged by their presence and help, and I was privileged to introduce them to many of my friends in Lampang. The next Sunday, a missionary family in Chiang Mai came to help at the market. I'm grateful for their friendship and willingness to join me.

On the Docket:

Itineration! I will be in America January to April 2025 to share about what God is doing in Thailand. Please let me know how and when I can serve your church or small group. I'm looking forward to seeing you, it's been awhile!

Friends from the market, at a celebration for one of them who moved to a new house ⇨

Spare Sixty Would you please take one minute to pray for this need in the Buddhist world? It seems to me that many of my friends struggle to have good sleep, for a variety of reasons both known and unknown. Please pray that people throughout the Buddhist world will sleep well with dreams of Jesus, and give credit to God for good rest!

Praise & Prayer PRAISE GOD FOR: a prayer trip to Tak and safe travel for other meetings and events; friends at the weekend market; colleagues who visit and encourage me. PLEASE PRAY FOR: God to provide for friends who need a job; gospel conversations at the market and curious hearts; itineration preparations.
